The Mid-Continent Magazine

Will devote much of its space to exploiting and promoting the interests of the Rocky Mountain States.

There will be two editors in New Mexico who will be paid a salary to look after the editorial matter of this state. The object of the Publishers is to publish a conservative magazine for the agriculture and irrigation development of the Rocky Mountain States, also to give New Mexico its proper share of representation and publicity through the eastern states. The magazine means a great deal to the future of New Mexico and the people, and should have the support and consideration of all its citizens.

The May issue will contain the best article ever written on New Mexico. There will be from twenty to thirty cuts showing the various projects in the State under development. There will be interesting articles on irrigation and shallow well pumping, also in the May issue. The subscription price is $1.00 per year. Published every month.
